THANKSGIVING FOR BAPTISM

P Blessed be the holy Trinity, + one God,
the fountain of living water,
the rock who gave us birth,
our light and our salvation.

C Amen.

P Joined to Christ in the waters of baptism,
we are clothed with God's mercy and forgiveness.
Let us give thanks for the gift of baptism.

We give you thanks, O God,
for in the beginning your Spirit moved over the waters
and by your Word you created the world, calling forth life in which you took delight.

Through the waters of the flood you delivered Noah and his family.
Through the sea you led your people Israel from slavery into freedom.
At the river your Son was baptized by John and anointed with the Holy Spirit.
By water and your Word you claim us as daughters and sons, making us heirs of your promise and servants of all.

We praise you for the gift of water that sustains life,
and above all we praise you for the gift of new life in Jesus Christ.
Shower us with your Spirit,
and renew our lives with your forgiveness, grace, and love.

To you be given honor and praise through Jesus Christ our Lord
in the unity of the Holy Spirit, now and forever.

C Amen.

Baptized, We Live! What does my Baptism mean?

Sacrament

Through part of creation - ordinary water made holy by the power of God's Word - we are bound to God in love and forgiveness.

Cleansing

In Baptism God washes us from our sinfulness and cleanses us in divine forgiveness.

Initiation

In Baptism, we enter the Church, the body of Christ, the family of God, the community of people who hear the Word of Christ and share his body and blood in Holy Communion.

New Birth

By the power of the Holy Spirit, in Baptism, we are reborn as children of God and inheritors of the Kingdom.

Union

In the waters of Baptism we are united with Christ in his death and resurrection, sharing his death so that we might have new life in him.

Identity

Baptism establishes our identity for life. We are made children of God, sealed by the Holy Spirit and marked with the cross of Christ forever.

The Baptismal Promises

In baptism, parents and sponsors promise to faithfully bring children to the services of God's house; teach them the Lord's Prayer, the Creed, and the Ten Commandments; place in their hands the Holy Scriptures and provide for their instruction in the Christian faith.

WORD

FIRST READING: Isaiah 42:1-9 (Pew Bible page 584)

L A reading from the book of the prophet, Isaiah.

Here is my servant, whom I uphold,
my chosen, in whom my soul delights;
I have put my spirit upon him;
he will bring forth justice to the nations.
He will not cry or lift up his voice,
or make it heard in the street;
and a dimly burning wick he will not quench;
he will faithfully bring forth justice.
He will not grow faint or be crushed until he has established justice in the earth;
and the coastlands wait for his teaching.

Thus says God, the Lord,
who created the heavens and stretched them out,
who spread out the earth and what comes from it,
who gives breath to the people upon it and spirit to those who walk in it:
I am the Lord, I have called you in righteousness,
I have taken you by the hand and kept you;
I have given you as a covenant to the people,
a light to the nations,
to open the eyes that are blind,
to bring out the prisoners from the dungeon,
from the prison those who sit in darkness.
I am the Lord, that is my name;
my glory I give to no other,
nor my praise to idols.
See, the former things have come to pass,
and new things I now declare;
before they spring forth,
I tell you of them.

L The word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

PSALM: Psalm 29 (Read responsively)

P Ascribe to the Lord, you gods, ascribe to the Lord glory and strength.

C Ascribe to the Lord the glory due God's name;
worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.

P The voice of the Lord is upon the waters; the God of glory thunders;
the Lord is upon the mighty waters.

C The voice of the Lord is a powerful voice;
the voice of the Lord is a voice of splendor.

P The voice of the Lord breaks the cedar trees;
the Lord breaks the cedars of Lebanon;

C the Lord makes Lebanon skip like a calf,
and Mount Hermon like a young wild ox.

P The voice of the Lord bursts forth in lightning flashes.

C The voice of the Lord shakes the wilderness;
the Lord shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.

P The voice of the Lord makes the oak trees writhe and strips the forests bare.
And in the temple of the Lord all are crying, "Glory!"

C The Lord sits enthroned above the flood;
the Lord sits enthroned as king forevermore.

P O Lord, give strength to your people;
give them, O Lord, the blessings of peace.

SECOND READING: Acts 10:34-43 (Pew Bible page 895)

A A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Peter began to speak to [Cornelius and his household]: “I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ—he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.”

A The word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL: Matthew 3:13-17 (Pew Bible page 784)

P The holy gospel according to St. Matthew, the third chapter.

C Glory to you, O Lord.

Then Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan, to be baptized by him. John would have prevented him, saying, “I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?” But Jesus answered him, “Let it be so now; for it is proper for us in this way to fulfill all righteousness.” Then he consented. And when Jesus had been baptized, just as he came up from the water, suddenly the heavens were opened to him and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting on him. And a voice from heaven said, “This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.”

P The gospel of the Lord.

C Praise to you, O Christ.

P Holy One, the beginning and the end, the giver of life:
Blessed are you for the birth of creation.
Blessed are you in the darkness and in the light.
Blessed are you for your promise to your people.
Blessed are you in the prophets' hopes and dreams.
Blessed are you for Mary's openness to your will.
Blessed are you for your Son Jesus,
the Word made flesh.

In the night in which he was betrayed,
our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks,
and gave it for all to drink, saying:
This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

With this bread and cup
we remember your Word dwelling among us, full of grace and truth.
We remember our new birth in his death and resurrection.
We look with hope for his coming.
Come, Lord Jesus.

Holy God, we long for your Spirit.
Come among us.
Bless this meal.
May your Word take flesh in us.
Awaken your people.
Fill us with your light.
Bring the gift of peace on earth.
Come, Holy Spirit.

All praise and glory are yours,
Holy One of Israel,
Word of God incarnate,
Power of the Most High,
one God, now and forever.
Amen.

SHARING OF HOLY COMMUNION

As Lutherans, we believe that Christ is really present in the bread and wine we share. All are welcome to commune here. Infants and others who do not commune are invited to come forward and receive a blessing.

Please take a communion glass from the ushers on your way forward. As the pastors and lay assistants give the bread and wine, they say these words to each communicant: The body of Christ, given for you; the blood of Christ, shed for you. The communicant may say: Amen.

Gluten-free wafers are available from the pastors. Let them know that you need one when you come forward to receive the bread. For those who require it, grape juice is available instead of wine in the pre-filled, purple glasses in the communion cup trays.

1 O Lord, now let your ser - vant de - part in heav'n-ly peace,
