WORD

FIRST READING: Deuteronomy 30:9-14 (Pew Bible page 163)

L A reading from the book of Deuteronomy.

The Lord your God will make you abundantly prosperous in all your undertakings, in the fruit of your body, in the fruit of your livestock, and in the fruit of your soil. For the Lord will again take delight in prospering you, just as he delighted in prospering your ancestors, when you obey the Lord your God by observing his commandments and decrees that are written in this book of the law, because you turn to the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

Surely, this commandment that I am commanding you today is not too hard for you, nor is it too far away. It is not in heaven, that you should say, "Who will go up to heaven for us, and get it for us so that we may hear it and observe it?" Neither is it beyond the sea, that you should say, "Who will cross to the other side of the sea for us, and get it for us so that we may hear it and observe it?" No, the word is very near to you; it is in your mouth and in your heart for you to observe.

L The word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

PSALM 25 (Read Responsively)

A To you, O Lord,
I lift up my soul.

C My God, I put my trust in you; let me not be put to shame, nor let my enemies triumph over me.

A Let none who look to you be put to shame;
rather let those be put to shame who are treacherous.

C Show me your ways, O Lord,
and teach me your paths.

A Lead me in your truth and teach me,
for you are the God of my salvation;
in you have I trusted all the day long.

C Remember, O Lord, your compassion and love,
for they are from everlasting.

A Remember not the sins of my youth and my transgressions;
remember me according to your steadfast love and for the sake of your goodness, O Lord.

C You are gracious and upright, O Lord;
therefore you teach sinners in your way.

A You lead the lowly in justice and teach the lowly your way.

C All your paths, O Lord, are steadfast love and faithfulness to those who keep your covenant and your testimonies.

SECOND READING: Colossians 1:1-14 (Pew Bible page 956)

A A reading from the letter of Paul to the Colossians.

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,
To the saints and faithful brothers and sisters in Christ in Colossae:
Grace to you and peace from God our Father.

In our prayers for you we always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, for we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love that you have for all the saints, because of the hope laid up for you in heaven. You have heard of this hope before in the word of the truth, the gospel that has come to you. Just as it is bearing fruit and growing in the whole world, so it has been bearing fruit among yourselves from the day you heard it and truly comprehended the grace of God. This you learned from Epaphras, our beloved fellow servant. He is a faithful minister of Christ on your behalf, and he has made known to us your love in the Spirit.

For this reason, since the day we heard it, we have not ceased praying for you and asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of God's will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, so that you may lead lives worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, as you bear fruit in every good work and as you grow in the knowledge of God. May you be made strong with all the strength that comes from his glorious power, and may you be prepared to endure everything with patience, while joyfully giving thanks to the Father, who has enabled you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light. He has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

A The word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL: Luke 10:25-37 (Pew Bible page 844)

P The holy gospel according to St. Luke, the tenth chapter.

C Glory to you, O Lord.

Just then a lawyer stood up to test Jesus. "Teacher," he said, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?" He said to him, "What is written in the law? What do you read there?" He answered, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself." And he said to him, "You have given the right answer; do this, and you will live."

But wanting to justify himself, he asked Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?" Jesus replied, "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him, and went away, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan while traveling came near him; and when he saw him, he was moved with pity. He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. The next day he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, 'Take care of him; and when I come back, I will repay you whatever more you spend.' Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?" He said, "The one who showed him mercy." Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

SHARING OF HOLY COMMUNION

As Lutherans, we believe that Christ is really present in the bread and wine we share. All are welcome to commune here. Infants and others who do not commune are invited to come forward and receive a blessing.

Please take a communion glass from the ushers on your way forward. As the pastors and lay assistants give the bread and wine, they say these words to each communicant: The body of Christ, given for you; the blood of Christ, shed for you. The communicant may say: Amen.

Gluten-free wafers are available from the pastors. Let them know that you need one when you come forward to receive the bread. For those who require it, grape juice is available instead of wine in the pre-filled, purple glasses in the communion cup trays.

Summer Speaker Series

Once again we will be having a Summer Speaker Series. The following events will happen in July. Each one will occur on a Sunday after the 10:00 AM worship service and our speakers will also be available to answer questions. You are welcome to bring your friends.

July 17 – Shelley Kubincanek, the Church/Community Relations Manager from the City Mission, will join us to tell us what they are doing and bring us up to date.

July 31- Our church family member, Soheila Lunney, who is originally from Iran will share her story with us.

CHILDREN AND YOUTH

Playground Picnics – Pack up your dinner and a picnic blanket or chairs and bring the whole family for fun, conversation, and fellowship on the playground at Our Redeemer! We'll gather at 5:30pm on Friday, July 15, weather permitting.

7th-12th grade Game Night – Youth entering grades 7-12 are invited to join Pastor Kerri on Thursday, July 21 from 6:30-8pm for a night of board games. Bring a friend and your favorite game!

Flat Jesus – Continue to send in your photos of Flat Jesus – so far he's been to pools, amusement parks, car shows, and other adventures! You can see pictures on the bulletin board in the lobby, as well as on the ORLC Facebook page.

The registration form and volunteer sign-up sheet are available on our website.

Visit <https://www.OurRedeemer-peters.org> and click on “Events” at the top of the page.

VBS volunteers - We are still in need of teen (rising 7th graders and above) and adult volunteers for the full or partial VBS week – contact Pastor Kerri if you're available to help.

VBS decorations – Thanks so much to all those who have donated materials and time as we prepare decorations for VBS! Our under-the-sea and beach decorations will go up the week of July 18.

- Join Pastor Kerri on Tuesday, July 12 at 1:30pm in the Social Hall to work on more decorations!
- Or you can color a fish or other sea creature for us to add to the reef or other underwater scenes. Draw your own, print a coloring page at home, or pick one up from the church.
