CONFESSION AND ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

P Blessed be the holy Trinity, + one God, who is eager to forgive
and who loves us beyond our days.

C Amen.

P Dear friends, together let us acknowledge our failure to love this world as Jesus does.

Silence is kept for reflection.

P God of mercy and forgiveness,
C we confess that sin still has a hold on us.
We have harmed your good creation.
We have failed to do justice,
love kindness,
and walk humbly with you.
Turn us in a new direction.
Show us the path that leads to life.
Be our refuge and strength on the journey,
through Jesus Christ, our redeemer and friend.
Amen.

P Beloved of God:
your sins are forgiven and you are made whole.
God points the way to new life in Christ,
who meets us on the road.
Journey now in God's abiding love
through the power of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

WORD

FIRST READING: REVELATION 7:9-17 (Pew Bible page 999)

L A reading from the book of Revelation.

After this I looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying,

“Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!”
And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, singing, “Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen.”

Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, “Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?” I said to him, “Sir, you are the one that knows.” Then he said to me, “These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

For this reason they are before the throne of God,
and worship him day and night within his temple,
and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them.
They will hunger no more, and thirst no more;
the sun will not strike them,
nor any scorching heat;
for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd,
and he will guide them to springs of the water of life,
and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

L The word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

SECOND READING: Ephesians 1:11-23 (Pew Bible page 949)

A A reading from Paul's letter to the Ephesians.

In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance toward redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

A The word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL: Luke 6:20-31 (Pew Bible page 838)

P The holy gospel according to St. Luke, the sixth chapter.

C Glory to you, O Lord.

Then [Jesus] looked up at his disciples and said:

“Blessed are you who are poor,
for yours is the kingdom of God.

“Blessed are you who are hungry now,
for you will be filled.

“Blessed are you who weep now,
for you will laugh.

“Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets.

“But woe to you who are rich,
for you have received your consolation.

“Woe to you who are full now,
for you will be hungry.

“Woe to you who are laughing now,
for you will mourn and weep.

“Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets.

“But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you.”

P The gospel of the Lord.

C Praise to you, O Christ.

The musical score is written on four staves in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The melody is simple and hymn-like, with lyrics written below the notes. The first staff begins with a half note G4, followed by quarter notes A4, B4, C5, and a half note D5. The second staff continues with a half note E5, followed by quarter notes F#5, G5, A5, and a half note B5. The third staff starts with a half note C6, followed by quarter notes B5, A5, G5, and a half note F#5. The fourth staff concludes with a half note E5, followed by quarter notes D5, C5, B4, and a half note A4. The piece ends with a double bar line.

SHARING OF HOLY COMMUNION

As Lutherans, we believe that Christ is really present in the bread and wine we share. All are welcome to commune here. Infants and others who do not commune are invited to come forward and receive a blessing.

Please take a communion glass from the ushers on your way forward. As the pastors and lay assistants give the bread and wine, they say these words to each communicant: The body of Christ, given for you; the blood of Christ, shed for you. The communicant may say: Amen.

Gluten-free wafers are available from the pastors. Let them know that you need one when you come forward to receive the bread. For those who require it, grape juice is available instead of wine in the pre-filled, purple glasses in the communion cup trays.

Children and Youth

Service Project – 7th-12th graders are invited to join Pastor Kerri for a pizza lunch and service project on Sunday, November 20 from 12:15 to 1:45pm. We'll be putting together worship bags for the kids at City Mission. Sign up on the bulletin board or online.

Gratitude Calendar and Tree – Pick up a copy of the “Gratitude Every Day” calendar from Pastor Kerri or from the bulletin board. It has daily prompts for reflection and conversation. There are also materials to make a “Gratitude Tree” – write each day’s gratitude on a paper leaf, and hang it on a branch or garland to reflect on all month. Send in a picture of your tree or garland as it fills up with leaves! (Packets are available on the bulletin board and can be downloaded from our website.)

Wine Tasting
Adult Fellowship Event

We will be having a wine-tasting! Thank you to everyone who indicated an interest. Now is the time to sign up. We will sample five wines from the Finger Lakes region of New York. A charcuterie plate will be served and you can choose to taste drier or sweeter wines. (If you can't make up your mind, team up with someone and split the tastes of both.)

Saturday, November 12 at 6:30
Cost $20/person

Sign up at church and use the payment envelopes to indicate your preference for drier or sweeter wine. Friends are welcome! TODAY IS THE DEADLINE TO SIGN UP.

to labor...

Do you find meaning in doing God's work with your hands?

Do you have skills that you enjoy using for the benefit of others?

Do you enjoy serving in a leadership or supportive role in worship?

to love...

Are you moved by the needs of others?

Are you passionate about Jesus' call to love our neighbor as we love ourselves?

Do you love teaching children? Or listening to teenagers?

to give...

Does gratitude for what you have move you to financial generosity?

Do you find joy in sharing your time or wisdom to teach or encourage or support others?

Do you like to help out with projects or activities that happen at church or in the community?

Whatever your time, skills, interests, or resources, there are ways you can use them to serve at and through Our Redeemer. Use this form to indicate how you would like to labor, love, and give. Then drop it off in the offering plate or send it to the church office.

WORSHIP

Each Sunday morning we need 29 people to help with worship, in addition to the pastors and musicians. If you're not sure what any of these roles entail, please talk to a pastor or contact the church office.
