CONFESSION AND ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

P Blessed be the holy Trinity, + one God, who is eager to forgive
and who loves us beyond our days.

C Amen.

P Dear friends, together let us acknowledge our failure to love this world as Jesus does.

Silence is kept for reflection.

P God of mercy and forgiveness,
C we confess that sin still has a hold on us.
We have harmed your good creation.
We have failed to do justice,
love kindness,
and walk humbly with you.
Turn us in a new direction.
Show us the path that leads to life.
Be our refuge and strength on the journey,
through Jesus Christ, our redeemer and friend.
Amen.

P Beloved of God:
your sins are forgiven and you are made whole.
God points the way to new life in Christ,
who meets us on the road.
Journey now in God's abiding love
through the power of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

WORD

FIRST READING: ISAIAH 65:17-25 (Pew Bible page 607)

L A reading from the book of the prophet Isaiah.

For I am about to create new heavens
and a new earth;
the former things shall not be remembered
or come to mind.
But be glad and rejoice forever
in what I am creating;
for I am about to create Jerusalem as a joy,
and its people as a delight.
I will rejoice in Jerusalem,
and delight in my people;
no more shall the sound of weeping be heard in it,
or the cry of distress.
No more shall there be in it
an infant that lives but a few days,
or an old person who does not live out a lifetime;
for one who dies at a hundred years will be considered a youth,
and one who falls short of a hundred will be considered accursed.
They shall build houses and inhabit them;
they shall plant vineyards and eat their fruit.
They shall not build and another inhabit;
they shall not plant and another eat;
for like the days of a tree shall the days of my people be,
and my chosen shall long enjoy the work of their hands.
They shall not labor in vain,
or bear children for calamity;
for they shall be offspring blessed by the Lord—
and their descendants as well.
Before they call I will answer,
while they are yet speaking I will hear.
The wolf and the lamb shall feed together,
the lion shall eat straw like the ox;
but the serpent—its food shall be dust!
They shall not hurt or destroy
on all my holy mountain,
says the Lord.

L The word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

PSALM: Psalm 98

The leader sings the refrain once, then the congregation sings it.

The refrain is then sung by the congregation after each verse of the psalm.

Leader:

Sing a new song to the Lord, who has done marvelous things,
whose right hand and holy arm have won the victory.
O Lord, you have made known your victory,
you have revealed your righteousness in the sight of the nations.
You remember your steadfast love and faithfulness to the house of Israel;
all the ends of the earth have seen the victory of our God.

Refrain

Leader:

Shout with joy to the Lord, all you lands;
lift up your voice, rejoice, and sing.
Sing to the Lord with the harp,
with the harp and the voice of song.
With trumpets and the sound of the horn shout with joy before the king, the Lord.

Refrain

Let the sea roar, and all that fills it,
the world and those who dwell therein.
Let the rivers clap their hands,
and let the hills ring out with joy before the Lord,
who comes to judge the earth.
The Lord will judge the world with righteousness and the peoples with equity.

Refrain

SECOND READING: 2 Thessalonians 3:6-13 (Pew Bible page 962)

A A reading from the second letter of Paul to the Thessalonians.

Now we command you, beloved, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to keep away from believers who are living in idleness and not according to the tradition that they received from us. For you yourselves know how you ought to imitate us; we were not idle when we were with you, and we did not eat anyone's bread without paying for it; but with toil and labor we worked night and day, so that we might not burden any of you. This was not because we do not have that right, but in order to give you an example to imitate. For even when we were with you, we gave you this command: Anyone unwilling to work should not eat. For we hear that some of you are living in idleness, mere busybodies, not doing any work. Now such persons we command and exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ to do their work quietly and to earn their own living. Brothers and sisters, do not be weary in doing what is right.

A The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL: Luke 21:5-19 (Pew Bible page 856)

P The holy gospel according to St. Luke, the twenty-first chapter.

C Glory to you, O Lord.

When some were speaking about the temple, how it was adorned with beautiful stones and gifts dedicated to God, [Jesus] said, "As for these things that you see, the days will come when not one stone will be left upon another; all will be thrown down."

They asked him, "Teacher, when will this be, and what will be the sign that this is about to take place?" And he said, "Beware that you are not led astray; for many will come in my name and say, 'I am he!' and, 'The time is near!' Do not go after them.

"When you hear of wars and insurrections, do not be terrified; for these things must take place first, but the end will not follow immediately." Then he said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be great earthquakes, and in various places famines and plagues; and there will be dreadful portents and great signs from heaven.

"But before all this occurs, they will arrest you and persecute you; they will hand you over to synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors because of my name. This will give you an opportunity to testify. So make up your minds not to prepare your defense in advance; for I will give you words and a wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to withstand or contradict. You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, by relatives and friends; and they will put some of you to death. You will be hated by all because of my name. But not a hair of your head will perish. By your endurance you will gain your souls."

P The gospel of the Lord.

SHARING OF HOLY COMMUNION

As Lutherans, we believe that Christ is really present in the bread and wine we share. All are welcome to commune here. Infants and others who do not commune are invited to come forward and receive a blessing.

Please take a communion glass from the ushers on your way forward. As the pastors and lay assistants give the bread and wine, they say these words to each communicant: The body of Christ, given for you; the blood of Christ, shed for you. The communicant may say: Amen.

Gluten-free wafers are available from the pastors. Let them know that you need one when you come forward to receive the bread. For those who require it, grape juice is available instead of wine in the pre-filled, purple glasses in the communion cup trays.

Christ the King—November 19-20 . . . Join us in worship next weekend as we celebrate Christ the King with a special service that moves through the seasons of the church year.

Donations for Christmas Decorations . . . Forms are available on the bulletin board and on our website. Dedications will be printed in our Christmas bulletins.

Children and Youth

Service Project – 7th-12th graders are invited to join Pastor Kerri for a pizza lunch and service project on Sunday, November 20 from 12:15 to 1:45pm. We'll be putting together worship bags for the kids at City Mission. Sign up on the bulletin board or online.

Gratitude Calendar and Tree – Pick up a copy of the “Gratitude Every Day” calendar from Pastor Kerri or from the bulletin board. It has daily prompts for reflection and conversation. There are also materials to make a “Gratitude Tree” – write each day’s gratitude on a paper leaf, and hang it on a branch or garland to reflect on all month. Send in a picture of your tree or garland as it fills up with leaves! (Packets are available on the bulletin board and can be downloaded from our website.)

Advent Soup Supper—November 27

If you enjoy making a “family favorite” soup or trying out an interesting recipe, bring a pot of soup to share. Otherwise, bring bread or dessert or just come and eat. Soups are to be dropped off by 5:15 in a crockpot or something similar. Dinner begins at 5:30.

Dining Out Divas—December 7

The ladies will enjoy lunch at Aladdin’s in McMurray at 12:30 on Wednesday, December 7.

Breakfast at the Manger—December 18

Breakfast at the Manger is the celebration of Christmas that includes singing, eating and enjoying the telling of a Christmas story around the manger in the social hall. This year’s story is “The Spider’s Gift.” Special breads, muffins, bagels or coffee cakes for 8-10 are needed (no peanuts, please). The breakfast also includes cereal, fruit and beverages.

Sign up on the bulletin board or through the church’s website for any of the above events.

Service and Social Ministry

City Mission Boxes of Love . . . Donate toward a Thanksgiving dinner by providing the sides needed to make the dinner complete (canned veggies, instant potatoes, stuffing mix, gravy, cranberry sauce, dessert). You do not need to donate every side item listed. We will collect board games as well. Donations will be accepted through November 14.

Washington County Children and Youth Services Helping Hands . . . Shop in store and drop off a new, unwrapped gift of your choice to the church by December 4 or shop online through Amazon’s registry & gifting. Use the QR code or link found in the November newsletter or search their registry & gifting using the above title.
