CALL TO WORSHIP

P On this night, this silent night,
C love was born in Bethlehem.

P On this night, this hope-filled night,
C the prophets' words were fulfilled.

P On this night, this glorious night,
C shepherds heard the angels' song.

P On this night, this heavenly night,
C glory streamed from the angel host.

P On this night, this wondrous night,
C God took on human form and was born among us.

P On this night, this peace-filled night,
C Mary and Joseph beheld God's Son.

P On this night, this blessed night,
C God still comes to dwell among us.

P On this night, this holy night,
we come to hear once again the angels' song,
to go with the shepherds to Bethlehem,
to wonder with Mary and Joseph,
to behold the child who is "God with us."
C O come, let us adore him
on this most holy night.

OLD TESTAMENT PROPHECY: Isaiah 9:2, 6-7; 40:4-5

L Readings from the prophet Isaiah.

The people who walk in darkness have seen a great light.
Those who lived in the land of deep darkness - on them has light shined.
For to us a child is born, to us a son is given.
And the government will be upon his shoulder.
And his name will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.
Of the increase of his government and of peace there will be no end, upon the throne of David and over his kingdom, to establish it,
and to uphold it with justice and with righteousness
from this time forth and forevermore.
The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this.

Every valley shall be lifted up,
and every mountain and hill be made low;
the uneven ground shall become level,
and the rough places plain.
Then the glory of the Lord shall be revealed,
and all people shall see it together,
for the mouth of the Lord has spoken.

L On this night, this hope-filled night,

C the prophets' words were fulfilled.

GOSPEL: Luke 2:1-20

P The Christmas Gospel according to St. Luke, the 2nd Chapter.
C Glory to you, O Lord.

In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. All went to their own towns to be registered. Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

P On this night, this holy night,
C love was born in Bethlehem.

Away in a Manger

1 A - way in a man - ger, no crib for his bed, the lit - tle Lord Je - sus laid down his sweet head; the stars in the sky looked down where he lay; the lit - tle Lord Je - sus a - sleep on the hay.

In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. The angel said to the shepherds, “Do not be afraid; for see—I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger.”

And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, “Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!”

P On this night, this heavenly night,
C glory streamed from the heavenly host.

It Came upon the Midnight Clear

1 It came up - on the mid - night clear, that glo - rious song of old, from an - gels bend - ing near the earth to touch their harps of gold:
“Peace on the earth, good will to all, from heav’n’s all - gra - cious king.”
The world in sol - emn still - ness lay to hear the an - gels sing.

The image shows a musical score for the hymn "It Came upon the Midnight Clear". It consists of four staves of music in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The lyrics are written below the notes. The first staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a common time signature. The melody is simple and hymn-like, with a mix of quarter and eighth notes. The lyrics are: "1 It came up - on the mid - night clear, that glo - rious song of old, from an - gels bend - ing near the earth to touch their harps of gold: 'Peace on the earth, good will to all, from heav'n's all - gra - cious king.' The world in sol - emn still - ness lay to hear the an - gels sing." The score ends with a double bar line.

P When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, “Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us.” So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger.

P On this night, this glorious night,
C shepherds heard the angels’ song.

P When they saw this, the shepherds made known what had been told them about this child; and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

P On this night, this wondrous night, God took on human form and was born among us.

C O come, let us adore him on this most holy night.

CHRISTMAS PRAYERS

A Filled with wonder and joy that God's gift of grace has been given in the Son born for us, let us pray for the church, the good creation, and the needs of all.

A brief silence.

A Everlasting God, let your radiance shine forth and renew in your people an eager desire to proclaim the good news of salvation to those who still wait in darkness. Hear us, O God.

C Your mercy is great.

A Creating God, on this blessed night the heavens and the earth rejoice. Make us ever mindful of our calling to be faithful stewards of all you have given us, so that generations to come may flourish and praise you. Hear us, O God.

C Your mercy is great.

A Peacemaking God, we pray for those nations where your peace does not yet reign. Have mercy on our enemies, and deliver those who are caught in cycles of violence. Hear us, O God.

C Your mercy is great.

A Wonderful Counselor, shelter those who seek refuge and safety but find no welcome. Help those who are homeless, hungry, unemployed, without health care, and all who are in any need or distress. Hear us, O God.

C Your mercy is great.

A Mighty God, watch over those who travel to join loved ones, and those who are lonely or grieving. Bless all who seek you, and open our hearts to receive the gift of your love. Hear us, O God.

C Your mercy is great.

A We give thanks for the faithful who treasured the gospel in lives of witness and service. We wait in hope to join the multitude of the heavenly hosts in praising and glorifying you forever. Hear us, O God.

C Your mercy is great.

P Into the manger of your love, holy God, we lay our prayers, trusting in your promise made known to us in Jesus the Christ, our brother and Savior.

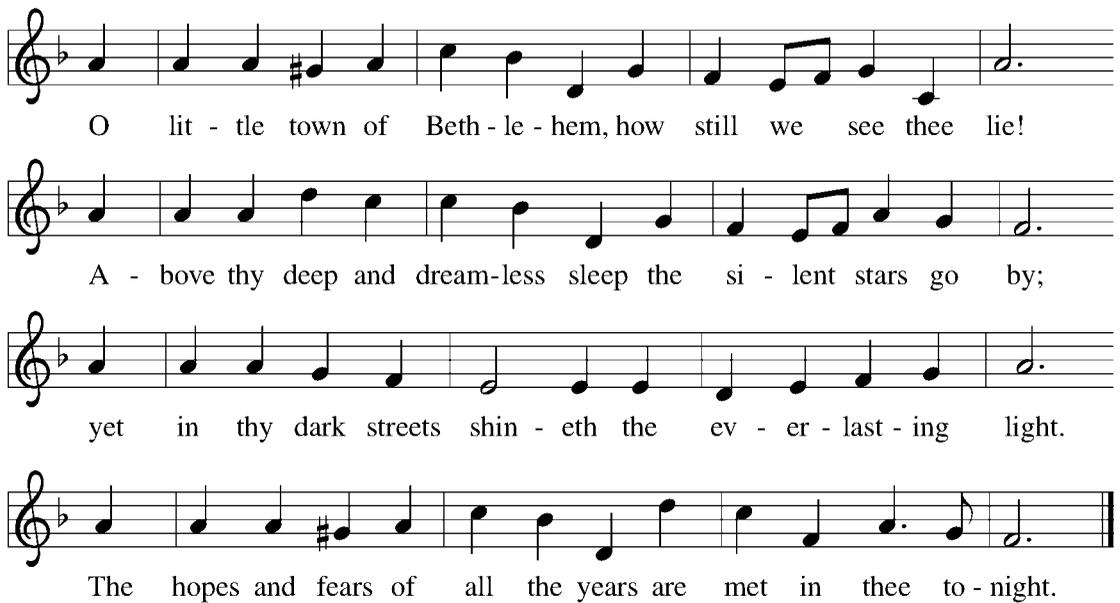

C Amen.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING AND WORDS OF INSTITUTION

P Holy and Almighty God, great is your glory and steadfast your love.
 Through your people of old you prepared the way for the coming of the Messiah.
 Through the prophets you proclaimed his advent,
 and from the stump of Jesse, as good as dead,
 you brought forth a new shoot, a child, born of Mary.

C (Sung)
For Christ is born of Mary, and gathered all above
 While mortals sleep, the angels keep their watch of wond'ring love.
 O morning stars, together, proclaim the holy birth,
 And praises sing to God the king, and peace to all the earth!

P Lord Jesus Christ, you came to live among us,
 to take on human flesh and walk with us,
 that we might come to know your great love.
 You came and died among us, took on the cross,
 that we might know forgiveness and eternal life.
 In your life, and in your death,
 you gave yourself to us as a gift of love.

C (Sung)
How silently, how silently the wondrous gift is giv'n!
So God imparts to human hearts the blessings of his heav'n.
No ear may hear his coming; but, in this world of sin,
Where meek souls will receive him, still the dear Christ enters in.

P In the night in which he was betrayed,
our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks,
broke it, and gave it to his disciples,
saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup,
gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

O holy Child of Bethlehem, descend to us we pray,
come to us through this bread and wine,
your precious body and blood.
Cast out our sin, and enter in to our hearts this day.
As we celebrate your birth, we pray,
Oh come to us, abide with us, our Lord Immanuel.

C (Sung)
O holy Child of Bethlehem, descend to us, we pray;
Cast out our sin, and enter in, be born in us today.
We hear the Christmas angels the great glad tidings tell;
Oh, come to us, abide with us, Our Lord Immanuel.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

P God is with us - Emmanuel. Come and receive the gift of life.

DISTRIBUTION

As Lutherans, we believe that Christ is really present in the bread and wine we share. All are welcome to commune here. Infants and others who do not commune are invited to come forward and receive a blessing.

Please take a communion glass from the ushers on your way forward. As the pastors and lay assistants give the bread and wine, they say these words to each communicant: The body of Christ, given for you; the blood of Christ, shed for you. The communicant may say: Amen.

Gluten-free wafers are available from the pastors. Let them know that you need one when you come forward to receive the bread. For those who require it, grape juice is available instead of wine in the prefilled, purple glasses in the communion cup trays.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

A Great and saving God, you have gathered your scattered people around gifts of grain and wine, the body and blood of our Savior Christ. As we, like the shepherds, return on our way, may we proclaim all we have heard and seen, praising you in word and loving deed for the gift of Jesus, our Savior and Lord.
